4. Returned Accountable Property by an Accountable Official/Employee

4.1 For Serviceable/Unserviceable Accountable Property returned by the Accountable Official/Employee.

4.1.1 In the event that the accountable property is no longer needed by the accountable official, beyond economic repair or is being returned by a resigning/ retiring/ transferring revenue official/ employee, an appropriate RPA must be prepared by said official to reflect such return to the PropD/AHRMD. The PropD/AHRMD shall issue an RRI to the same official/employee to evidence cancellation of his/her property accountability. It shall be distributed in two (2) copies, as follows:

Original	-	Supply and/or Property Division/Unit file
Copy 2	-	Recipient or user of the property

5. Maintenance, Control, & Reconciliation of Records of Property Accountabilities

The PMCS of the PropD is responsible for the maintenance and control of all properties in the National and Regional Offices except items purchased in the regional offices. For this purpose, the section should keep a file record of all accountable properties in accordance with the following procedures:

5.1. Control of Record of Accountable Properties

- 5.1.1. All equipment, furniture, and semi- expendable properties shall be numbered upon receipt by the PropD;
- 5.1.2. The PropD upon receipt of the PAR/TPA/RPA shall keep this in their file. The number affixed in each property will serve as the identity of such property in the PAR, TPA, RPA and the Annual Physical Inventory of Equipment. Upon receipt of said property, all offices, or accountable officials should see to it that the accountable property under their responsibility are properly numbered and said number should be conspicuously printed on it. If not, they should take the initiative that such properties are numbered before reporting them in the Annual Physical Inventory of Equipment.
- 5.1.3. The AHRMD in the Regional Office shall likewise keep a similar file of all accountable properties received from the National Office and those procured in the region.

5.2. Control of Receipt of Property Accountability

- 5.2.1. Receipt for property accountability shall be reflected in the PAR/ TPA/ RPA, which is required of all accountable officials/employees. These are filed at the PMCS- PropD alphabetically and by offices for control purposes. The section also keeps Property Card for each class of equipment to record the acquisition, issue, transfer, disposal and description/ information about the equipment based on the source document of the transaction (Appendix 69, GAM, Vol. II). The section updates these files every time there is a transfer of property accountability.
- 5.2.2. In order to facilitate the issuance of property clearance, all accountable officials/employees should constantly check with the PMCS- PropD their property accountabilities and should not wait until they are about to resign or retire before doing so.
- 5.2.3 PAR issued shall be renewed every January of the third year after issue of the item concerned. All Bureau offices are enjoined to maintain an official Logbook of all items received by the officials and employees of the office concerned, which Logbook must contain all pertinent information stated in the corresponding PAR of each item.

5.3. Reconciliation of Property Accountability

- 5.3.1. In order to ensure that the record of property accountabilities filed at the PMCS- PropD tallies with the actual items in the accountability of revenue officials and employees, all Regional Offices shall furnish the PMCS- PropD with the original copy of subsequent turnover of vehicles, equipment and furniture of accountable official/employee upon resignation, retirement, and transfer from one office to another.
- 5.3.2. In cases of vehicles, equipment and furniture that were disposed in the Regional Offices, the PMCS-PropD, Accounting Division, and AHRMD should be furnished with a complete copy of the Inventory and Inspection Report for Unserviceable Property and other supporting documents. The documents submitted will serve as the basis in updating records of the PMCS- PropD and the Accounting Division.
