This means that, in no case shall the discount granted to Senior Citizens be less than 20%, or in the case of water and electricity supplied by public utility companies, be less than 5%. The minimum discount shall not be treated as an addition to the promotional discount, provided that, if the promotional discount is less than the minimum discount prescribed in the Act for Senior Citizens, the seller shall increase the discount to meet the said minimum discount prescribed for Senior Citizens.

SEC. 6. Determination of the Amount of Discount. – The grant of the discount is only for the purchase of goods and services enumerated in the Act for THE EXCLUSIVE USE AND ENJOYMENT OR AVAILMENT OF THE SENIOR CITIZEN. The following rules shall be observed in granting the discount:

Medical-Related Privileges:

(a) MEDICINE AND DRUG PURCHASES – The 20% discount and VAT exemption shall apply to the purchase of generic or branded medicines and drugs by or for senior citizens, including the purchase of influenza and pneumococcal vaccines. The purchases under Sections 1 (a) and (b) from drug stores, hospital pharmacies, medical and optical clinics and similar establishments including non-traditional outlets dispensing medicines, shall be subject to guidelines that shall be issued by the DOH within thirty (30) days from effectivity of these Rules, in coordination with the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PHILHEALTH). Said guidelines shall also indicate what constitutes discounted essential medical supplies, accessories and equipment as contemplated by Section 1 (b), and will be subjected to a regular review as deemed necessary in keeping with the changes, demands and needs of senior citizens.

The guidelines issued by the DOH, in consultation with the DOF and the BIR, shall also establish mechanisms of compulsory rebates in the sharing of burden of discounts among retailers, manufacturers, and distributors, taking into consideration their respective margins. When necessary, the DOF and the BIR shall come up with the appropriate Revenue Regulations for this purpose.

(c) MEDICAL AND DENTAL SERVICES IN PRIVATE FACILITIES – Medical and dental services, diagnostic and laboratory tests such as but not limited to X-Rays, computerized tomography scans, and blood tests, that are requested by a physician as necessary for the diagnosis and/or treatment of an illness or injury are subject to the 20% discount and VAT exemption.

(d) Consistent with the intent of the Act, the phrase “exclusive use and enjoyment” of the senior citizen shall mean “for the senior citizen’s personal consumption” only. As such, the 20% senior citizen discount shall not apply to “children’s meals” which are primarily prepared and intentionally marketed for children. Similarly, the 20% senior citizen discount shall not apply to "pre-contracted" party packages or bulk orders.

(e) Food, drinks and other consumable items provided in Section 3 (a) and (b), and Section 4, paragraph 2 of Article 7 purchased by the senior citizen shall be processed separately as an independent transaction from his/her non-eligible companions to ensure that it is for his/her exclusive consumption and to enable computation of the 20% discount and the exemption from the Value Added Tax (VAT), which only the senior citizen is entitled to.

However, if the group of diners is composed entirely of senior citizens, all of whom present valid senior citizens IDs, each shall be entitled to a 20% discount and exemption from Value Added Tax.

(f) The 20% discount shall apply to Take-Out/Take-Home/Drive-Thru orders (excluding bulk orders) as long as it is the senior citizen himself/herself who is present and personally ordering, and he/she can show a valid senior citizen ID card.

(g) For Delivery Orders (excluding bulk orders), the 20% discount shall likewise apply subject to certain conditions; i.e. senior citizen ID card number must be given while making the order over the telephone; the senior citizen ID card must also be presented upon delivery to verify the identity of the senior citizen entitled to the 20% discount. (h) For the above-mentioned transactions under paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 3 of Article 7, the Most Expensive Meal Combination (MEMC) shall apply to food purchases by senior citizens. The MEMC is an amount corresponding to the combination of the most expensive and biggest single-serving meal with beverage served in a quick service restaurant, is deemed flexible and is adjusted accordingly by food establishments to estimate a single food purchase for an individual senior citizen.

Recreation Centers - The discount shall be for the utilization of services in the form of fees, charges and rental for sports facilities or equipment, including golfcart rentals and green fees, or venues for ballroom dancing, yoga, badminton courts, bowling lanes, table or lawn tennis, workout gyms, martial arts facilities.

Non-profit, stock golf and country clubs which are not open to the general public, and are private and for exclusive membership only as duly proven by their official Securities and Exchange (SEC) registration papers, are not mandated to give the 20% senior citizens discount. However, should restaurants and food establishments inside these country clubs be independent concessionaires and food sold are not consumable items under club membership dues, they must grant the 20% senior citizen discount.

Admission fees Privilege - The discount shall be applied to admission fees charged by theaters, cinema houses and concert halls, circuses, carnivals, and other similar places of culture, leisure and amusement such as museums and parks.

Funeral and Burial Expenses - The beneficiary or any person who shall shoulder the funeral and burial expenses of the deceased senior citizen, shall claim the discount under this Rule for the deceased senior citizen upon presentation of the death certificate. Such expenses shall cover the purchase of casket or urn, embalming, cremation cost, and other related services such as viewing or wake cost, pick-up from the hospital morgue, transport of the body to intended burial site in the place of origin, but shall exclude obituary publication and the cost of the memorial lot.

SEC. 7. Tax Treatment of the Discount Granted to Senior Citizens. – All establishments supplying any of the goods and services referred to in Section 4 and Section 5 of these Regulations, may claim the discounts granted as a tax deduction based on the cost of the goods sold or services rendered to Senior Citizens. By way of example, if a VAT-registered drug store sells ten (10) pieces of Allopurinol to a Senior Citizen at an undiscounted selling price of P5.00 per piece, the cost of the discount is computed as follows:

Selling Price (VAT-exempt) of 10 pcs. at P5.00/pc. ....	P50.00
Less: 20% Discount .....	10.00
Amount Payable by the Senior Citizen .....	P40.00

The selling price to be charged by the seller must be net of VAT because the sale to Senior Citizens is exempt from VAT. The cost of the discount in the above illustration is P10.00 and shall be allowed as a deduction from gross income for the same taxable year that the discount is granted, provided that, the total amount of the claimed tax deduction net of VAT, if applicable, shall be included in their gross sales receipts for tax purposes and shall be subject to proper documentation in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Code. This means that for the establishment to be allowed to claim the discount as a deduction, the amount of sales that must be reported for tax purposes is the undiscounted selling price and not the amount of sales net of the discount. The income statement of the seller must reflect the discount, not as a reduction of sales to arrive at net sales, but as a deduction from its gross income (sales less cost of sales). Thus the entry to record the transaction in the books of the seller should be as follows:

Debit – Cash	P40
Senior Citizen Discount Expense	10
Credit – Sales	P50

The discounts granted by the seller of qualified goods and services, i.e. the promotional discount, the 20% discount, the 5% discount on water and electric consumption by Senior Citizens, or the 50% discount on electricity, water and telephone consumption by the Senior Citizens Center, shall be treated as an ordinary and necessary expenses deductible from the gross income of the seller falling under the category of itemized deductions, and can only be claimed if the seller does not opt for the Optional Standard Deduction during the taxable quarter/year. The claim of the discount granted under the Act as an additional item of deduction from the gross income of the seller is subject to the following conditions:

1. Only that portion of the gross sales exclusively used, consumed or enjoyed by the Senior Citizen shall be eligible for the deductible sales discount.
2. The gross selling price and the sales discount must be separately indicated in the official receipt or sales invoice issued by the establishment for the sale of goods or services to the Senior Citizen.
3. Only the actual amount of the discount granted or a sales discount not less than the statutory rate (20%, 5% or 50% when applicable), whichever is higher, based on the gross selling price can be deducted from the gross income, net of value added tax, if applicable, for income tax purposes, and from gross sales or gross receipts of the business enterprise concerned, for VAT or other percentage tax purposes.
4. The seller must record its sales inclusive of the discount granted.

5. The discount can only be allowed as a deduction from gross income for the same taxable year that the discount is granted.
6. The business establishment giving sales discounts to qualified Senior Citizens is required to keep a separate and accurate record of sales, which shall include the name of the Senior Citizen, OSCA ID, gross sales/receipts, sales discount granted, dates of transactions and invoice numbers for every sale transaction to Senior Citizen.
7. Only business establishments selling any of the qualified goods and services to Senior Citizens where an actual discount was granted may claim the deduction.
8. The seller must not claim the Optional Standard Deduction during the taxable year.

SEC. 8. Availment of Income Tax Exemption of Senior Citizens. — A Senior Citizen who is a minimum wage earner, or whose taxable income during the year does not exceed his personal exemptions, will be exempt from income tax upon compliance with the following requirements:

1. A Senior Citizen must first be qualified as such by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or his duly authorized representative (i.e., the Revenue District Officer (RDO) having jurisdiction over the place where the Senior Citizen resides), by submitting a certified true copy of his Senior Citizen Identification Card (OSCA ID) issued by the OSCA of the city or municipality where he resides;
2. He must file a Sworn Statement on or before January 31 of every year that his annual taxable income for the previous year does not exceed the poverty level as determined by the NEDA thru the NSCB; and

However, a Senior Citizen who is a compensation income earner deriving from only one employer an annual taxable income exceeding the poverty level or the amount determined by the NEDA thru the NSCB on a particular year, but whose income had been subjected to the withholding tax on compensation, shall, although not exempt from income tax, be entitled to the substituted filing of income tax return under Revenue Regulations No. 2-98, as amended.

SEC. 9. Liability for Other Internal Revenue Taxes. — A Senior Citizen shall also be subject to the following internal revenue taxes, among others, imposed under the Tax Code:

1. Value Added Tax (VAT) or other Percentages Taxes, as the case may be. If he is self-employed or engaged in business or practice of profession, and his gross annual sales and/or receipts exceeds P1,500,000 or such amount to which this may be adjusted pursuant to Sec. 109(1)(V) of the Tax Code, he shall be subject to VAT. Otherwise, he shall be subject to the 3% percentage tax;
2. Donor's Tax – All donations made by a Senior Citizen during any calendar year, unless exempt under a specific provision of law, shall be subject to the donor's tax imposed under Title III of the Tax Code;
3. Estate Tax – In the event of death, the estate of the Senior Citizen may also be subject to the estate tax following the rules enunciated under Title III of the Tax Code and its implementing Regulations;

4. Excise Tax on certain goods; and
5. Documentary Stamp Tax.

SEC. 10. Exemption from VAT of the sale to Senior Citizens.-

Sales of any goods and services under Sections 4 and 5 of these Regulations to Senior Citizens shall be exempt from the value-added tax. To ensure the full entitlement of the Senior Citizen to the discount prescribed in the Act, the sellers are precluded from billing any VAT to the Senior Citizen.

The sale to a Senior Citizen must follow the invoicing requirements prescribed under Revenue Regulations No. 16-2005. If the seller uses a Point of Sale Machine or a Cash Register Machine in lieu of the regular sales invoice, the machine tape must properly segregate the exempt sales from the taxable sales.

The input tax attributable to the exempt sale shall not be allowed as an input tax credit and must be closed to cost or expense account by the seller.

The exemption herein granted will not cover other indirect taxes that may be passed on by the seller to a Senior Citizen buyer, such as percentage tax, excise tax, etc. In such a case, the discount must be on the total cost of the goods or services charged by the seller exclusive of the tax.

SEC. 11. Personal Exemptions of Benefactors of Senior Citizens. — A Benefactor of a Senior Citizen shall be entitled to claim the basic personal exemption of fifty thousand pesos (P50,000.00) which is the amount of basic personal exemption allowed under Republic Act No. 9504 for all taxpayers required to file income tax returns thereby removing the classification of tax filers into single, head of the family and married. A Senior Citizen who is not gainfully employed, living with and dependent upon his benefactor for chief support, although treated as dependent under the Act, will not entitle the benefactor to claim the additional personal exemption of twenty five thousand pesos (P25,000.00). The entitlement to claim the additional personal exemption per dependent (not exceeding four) is allowable only to individual taxpayers with a qualified dependent child or children subject to the conditions set forth under Section 35(B) of the Tax Code, as amended.

2. The annual taxable income of the Senior Citizen does not exceed the poverty level as may be determined by the NEDA thru the NSCB. For this purpose, the Senior Citizen shall submit to his employer a sworn certification that his annual taxable income does not exceed the poverty level.
