REVENUE MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 47-2018

SUBJECT: Circularizing the Reportorial Requirements of Revenue Regional Offices to the Internal Affairs Service

TO: All Revenue Officials and Employees Concerned

Under Revenue Administrative Order (RAO) No. 2-2014, the Internal Affairs Service (IAS) has the function to develop and implement policies and administer work programs, standards, guidelines and procedures, including forms relative to this; to provide functional directions to all divisions under the Service and to regional and district offices relative to the abovementioned functions; to coordinate with concerned offices in the implementation of the said functions; to monitor and coordinate the activities of the Regional Investigation Divisions (RIDs) of the Regional Offices pertaining to the fact-finding investigation of administrative cases of Bureau personnel; and to consolidate and/or prepare prescribed reports for submission to the offices concerned.

The Regional Offices have been required to submit Monthly Reports to the IAS regarding the handling and disposition of administrative complaints and charges. Observing that some regions do not regularly forward these reports, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue reiterated the submission of pertinent Reports by the Regional Offices to the IAS in his Memorandum dated December 11, 2017 and the sanction for non-compliance.

It has been further observed that the contents of submitted reports from the Regional Offices have varying formats. Therefore, this Circular is being issued to disseminate the revised formats of the reports required to be submitted to IAS by concerned offices in the Revenue Regions in order to facilitate the collation for database purposes and integration of these reports in the IAS.
