WHEREAS, in setting the minimum wage, the Board has to consider the various criteria under Republic Act No. 6727, as well as the guidelines on the Two-Tiered Wage System;

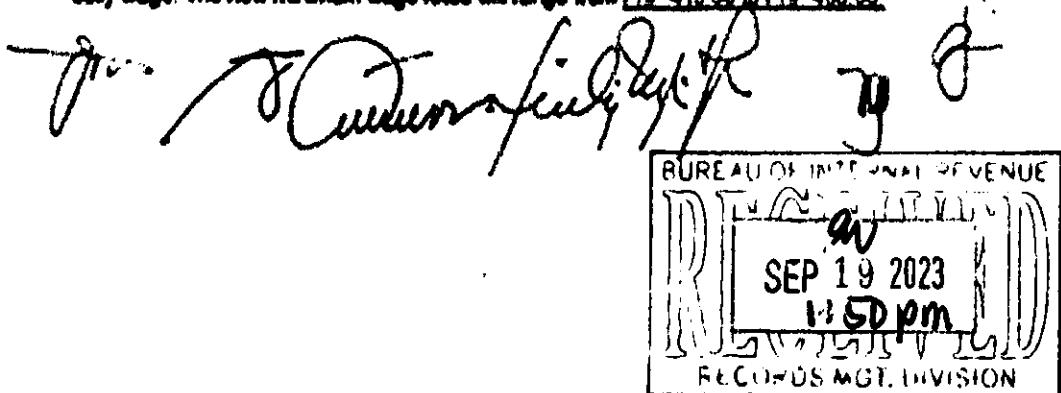

WHEREAS, after a thorough review and evaluation of the existing socio-economic conditions in the region, the following findings were established:

- a. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) in the region was at 110.9 in June 2022 and rose to 116.6 in July 2023;
- b. The average inflation rate from the effectivity of the last wage increase on June 14, 2022 up to July 2023 is 6.71%. In the same period, the region experienced the highest inflation rate in December 2022 at 8.5%. The beginning of 2023 saw the inflation rates easing up. July 2023 Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) data registered Region VII's inflation rate at 4.1%;
- c. The poverty threshold based on the latest available data provided by the PSA for an average family size of five (5) in 2021 is in the amount of PhP 13,008.00 or PhP 428.00 per day;
- d. The Purchasing Power of the Peso at the time of the effectivity of the wage order was at 0.99, in July 2023 it has gone down to 0.86; and
- e. Region VII's Gross Regional Domestic Product (GRDP) has increased from 5.4% growth in 2021 to 7.6% in 2022.

WHEREAS, after due consideration of the results of the public hearing and a thorough review and evaluation of the existing socio-economic conditions in the region, the Board agrees to adjust the prevailing daily wage rates of workers / employees in the Region to enable them to cope with the rising cost of living without impairing the viability of business and industry.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested under Republic Act No. 6727, RTWPB-VII hereby issues this Wage Order.

Section 1. Amount of increase. Upon effectivity of the Wage Order, minimum wage earners in the private sector in the Region shall receive a PhP 33.00 increase in daily wage. The new minimum wage rates will range from PhP 415.00 to PhP 468.00.
