10. Giving a false opinion, knowingly, recklessly or through gross incompetence, including an opinion which is intentionally or recklessly misleading, or a pattern of providing incompetent opinions on questions arising under the Tax Code. False opinion includes those which reflect or result from a known misstatement of fact or law; from an assertion of a position known to be unwarranted under existing laws or regulations; from advising or assisting in conduct known to be illegal or fraudulent; from concealment of matters required by law or regulations to be revealed. For purposes of this paragraph, "reckless conduct" is a highly unreasonable omission or misrepresentation involving an extreme departure from the standards of ordinary care that a practitioner should observe under the circumstances arising from non-compliance by the taxpayer-client with existing provisions of the Tax Code, its rules and regulations, including financial accounting standards and tax accounting rules. "Reckless conduct" on the part of the tax agent/practitioner shall be presumed when there is substantial underdeclaration of client-taxpayer's taxable sales, receipts or income, or a substantial overstatement of its deductions as defined under Section 248 of the NJIRC as amended, and such discrepancy is discovered by the Bureau in the conduct of its enforcement activities. A pattern of conduct is a factor that will be taken into account in determining whether a practitioner acted knowingly, recklessly, or through gross incompetence;
11. Failure to comply with the completion of the CPE; and
12. Consistent failure to indicate the BIR accreditation number in the documents filed with the BIR.

B. Filing of Petitions for Disaccreditation/Suspension place of business of the accredited tax agent against whom the Petition is being filed.

2. xxx     xxx     xxx
3. xxx     xxx     xxx
4. Petitions found to have been filed by fictitious persons or organizations, upon verification by the RRAB or RNAB concerned, shall be dismissed for lack of factual or legal bases.

C. Administrative Proceedings

1. xxx     xxx     xxx.
2. The RRAB or RNAB with whom a Petition for Disaccreditation/Suspension was filed shall conduct hearing(s) on such Petition, to allow both the Petitioner and the Accredited Tax Agent concerned to present their side of the case.
3. In the conduct of hearings, a quorum is sufficient to convene the RRAB or RNAB.
4. Upon termination of the hearing, the RRAB or RNAB shall decide by a majority vote of the members present and voting, whether to grant or deny the Petition.
5. In cases of disaccreditation or suspension, the RRAB or RNAB shall issue to the Tax Agent concerned a Notice of Disaccreditation/Suspension signed by its Chairman. A copy of such Notice shall be sent to the Petitioner.
6. In the event that a Petition for Disaccreditation/Suspension is denied, the RRAB or RNAB shall inform both parties of such decision, in an official communication signed by its Chairman.”
