REVENUE MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR No. 64-2023

TO : All School Administrators (College Level), All Revenue Officials and Personnel Concerned and Others Concerned

SUBJECT : Conduct of Search for the Philippines' Brightest Buwis Masters (PBBM) of 2023

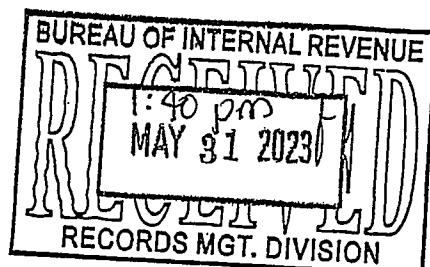

In line with the BIR's tax awareness campaign under the Taxpayer Awareness Program, a nationwide Search for the Philippines' Brightest Buwis Masters (PBBM) of 2023 shall be conducted for college students with the objective of enhancing the public's awareness and knowledge of the country's tax laws and regulations, particularly the youth sector who are the future taxpayers.

I. GUIDELINES

The following guidelines are hereby prescribed for the conduct of the Search for PBBM of 2023:

1. The Search for PBBM of 2023 (referred hereafter as Tax Quiz) is open to all college students nationwide.
2. To join the Tax Quiz, interested college students should register and be endorsed by their respective college/university. Copy of the Endorsement Form (Annex A) shall be submitted to the nearest BIR Revenue District Office (RDO), together with certified true copy of the school ID and latest school Registration Form of the student on or before June 9, 2023.
3. The Regional Office and its RDOs shall conduct information drives in colleges/universities within their areas to encourage participation in the Tax Quiz. The information materials to be used in promoting the Tax Quiz shall be prepared by the Communications Team under the Client Support Service.
4. The conduct of the Tax Quiz shall be done in two (2) levels – Regional Level and National Level (Championship Round). The Regional Level shall be conducted by the Regional Offices, together with their respective Revenue District Offices (RDOs), while the National Level (Championship Round) shall be conducted by the Client Support Service, in coordination with other offices in the BIR National Office.
5. The Regional Level of the Tax Quiz (Regional Tax Quiz) shall be conducted by each Regional Office within the period June 19 to 30, 2023 at a place/venue to be designated by the Regional Office.

6. The RDOs shall communicate to the head/administrator of participating schools/universities the date/time and venue of the Regional Tax Quiz, and require the endorsed students/participants to be present at the venue at least one (1) hour before the conduct of the Tax Quiz.
7. Depending on the number of students who enlisted to join the Tax Quiz, the Regional Office may conduct the Regional Tax Quiz in two (2) rounds – Elimination Round and Final Round following the Contest Mechanics in Annex H. In case there will be an Elimination Round, only the Top 12 Contestants shall proceed to the Final Round.
8. The questions for the Tax Quiz at the Regional Level and National Level shall be prepared by a Committee comprised of tax experts from the Regional/District Office and National Office, respectively, and from the private sector. Said Committee shall decide on the validity of answers given during the conduct of Tax Quiz, when necessary, and their decisions shall be considered as final and irrevocable.
9. The questions for the Tax Quiz shall cover the BIR registration requirements and the provisions relative to Income Tax, Value-Added Tax and Percentage Tax.
10. There shall be three (3) categories of questions, both for the Regional and National Levels – Easy, Average and Difficult. Each correct answer shall be given Points, as specified in the Contest Mechanics (Annex H).
11. The Top 3 Winners of the Regional Tax Quiz (Regional Champion, 1st Runner-up and 2nd Runner-up) shall receive Certificates of Recognition while the colleges/universities represented by the Top 3 Winners shall receive Certificates of Appreciation. Certificates of Participation shall also be issued to all the other Contestants (non-winners) who joined the Regional Tax Quiz.
12. The twenty-two (22) Regional Champions shall compete at the National Tax Quiz (Championship Round) to be held on July 28, 2023 at the BIR National Training Center, BIR Main Office Compound, Agham Road, Diliman, Quezon City.
13. The transportation and accommodation of the Regional Champion and one (1) school representative, if any, who shall participate/attend the National Tax Quiz (Championship Round) in the BIR National Office shall be for the account of the Regional Offices.
14. The National Tax Quiz (Championship Round) shall have an Elimination Round and a Final Round following the Contest Mechanics in Annex H.
15. The Top 3 Grand Winners of the BIR National Tax Quiz (Grand Champion, 1st Runner-up and 2nd Runner-up) shall be declared as the Philippines' Brightest Buwis Masters of 2023. They shall receive Plaques of Recognition while their respective college/university shall receive a trophy.
16. Employees of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and their families and relatives up to the second degree of consanguinity and affinity are not allowed to join the Tax Quiz.

II. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Revenue District Offices

1. Conduct information drives in colleges/universities within their areas to encourage participation of college students in the Tax Quiz.
2. Receive from colleges/universities copy of the Endorsement Form (template in Annex A) of their students who will join the Regional Tax Quiz, together with certified true copy of the school ID and latest school Registration Form of the participating students (contestants).
3. Ensure that the contestants submitted by colleges/universities are not related up to the second degree of consanguinity and affinity with any BIR employee.
4. After validation, prepare the List of Contestants (format in Annex B) who will join the Regional Tax Quiz and submit the same to the respective Regional Director not later than five (5) days before the conduct of the Regional Tax Quiz.
5. Coordinate with the participating colleges/universities on the final date and venue of the conduct of the Regional Tax Quiz and provide necessary assistance to the participating college students to ensure their attendance and participation to the said contest.
